GEM offers inter-disciplinary courses all conducted in English, designed for exchange students as well as Doshisha students to foster a better understanding of Japan in a global context. GEM provides learning opportunities in different fields ranging from the humanities and social sciences to the natural and human sciences.

By studying together in a small and interactive class, exchange students and Doshisha students can have more opportunities to have meaningful contact with one another, and benefit from the diversity of perspectives that are represented and shared in the classroom. In this way, GEM offers a unique space for academic collaboration between exchange students and Doshisha students that is intended to foster a dynamic academic environment.

GEM students from English-speaking countries, or whose English proficiency proves equivalent to a native-speaker may also enroll in courses offered by The Institute for the Liberal Arts (ILA) after consideration (up to 3 subjects). ILA courses are also conducted in English at a native level and focus mainly on Japanese culture and society. However, requests to register for ILA courses may not always be granted as many ILA courses have limited space for enrollment.

GEM students are also permitted to enroll in Japanese language courses in accordance with your Japanese proficiency (up to 3 credits). Japanese language courses are divided into 10 levels (Basic, Elementary level I ~ High Advanced level IX) based on student's Japanese ability and designed to improve four basic skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing in a balanced manner.

3. Credits

GEM considers a course that meets for two hours, once a week (x15 weeks) as two credits (except for Japanese language classes).

The maximum course load for GEM students is 30 credits for one year (15 credits per semester). Credits of taking Japanese language courses and ILA courses are also included in the maximum course credit load.

Students should take more than 7 classes (1 class=90 minutes) at least per week. It is prescribed by law*
